Bradlee Dean Warns President Obama of Planned Parenthood's Racial Agenda

(Annandale, MN) When Christian voters head for the polls on Tuesday, they should know that a vote for President Obama would give carte blanche to Planned Parenthood's racial agenda in its aggressive promotion of abortion.

"Mr. President, when you took your oath of office, you swore to 'defend the Constitution of the United States, so help me God.'"

So begins the letter of Christian musician Bradlee Dean's to the President of the United States. Dean, a preacher, talk-show host, and professional heavy metal drummer, seeks to confront the President on the hypocrisy of his term in office and open the eyes of the public to the agenda of Planned Parenthood, our country's largest abortion provider.

Dean writes that by supporting abortion, President Obama has blatantly disregarded the very Constitution his office should uphold. In his outspoken support for abortion, Obama continues to deprive Americans of their fundamental right to life, forcing taxpayers to fund abortions.

The most dangerous place to live

Published in World Net Daily, Dean's letter, "Obama's Complicity in Exterminating Americans," continues, the President has offered both verbal support and taxpayer funding for Planned Parenthood, praising the "good work" of the organization. Americans should not be fooled. Planned Parenthood is no Good Samaritan. The organization was founded upon the eugenic ideas of Margaret Sanger, who aspired to advocate a "racial purification.” Sanger’s agenda included targeting minorities, the disabled, and the “unfit” to prevent them from reproducing.

Planned Parenthood has become the biggest provider in the abortion industry, performing abortion on demand for upwards of 300,000 expectant mothers each year. Dean remarks that with a third of our generation being killed by abortion, the womb has become the most dangerous place to live.

The President has a responsibility to end this American genocide, and Dean calls for this in his letter, reminding the President that he must one day answer to God for his actions.

Dean, who has been featured in such publications as the New York Times, Fox News and MSNBC, started pursuing fulltime Ministry after his conversion to Christianity in 1995. He has since dedicated himself to reaching the young to help them find a purpose in life. In 1997 Dean founded YCR, which has as its mission statement:

“To reshape America by re-directing the current and future generations both morally and spiritually through education, media, and the Judeo-Christian values found in our U.S. Constitution.”
